Win digital cameras for your wedding

12 readers will win camera hire from Lastingmoments.co.uk worth £250

Your wedding photos are one of the most important reminders of your big day and while the professional shots are always great to have, some of the snaps taken by your friends and family can prove to be real gems. And what could be better than having all those shots easily available to send to friends, display on the web and print out time and time again?

Lastingmoments.co.uk is the first company in the UK to provide digital camera rental for your wedding, using Kodak easy-to-use, point-and-shoot cameras with an elegant silver finish that will complement your table decorations. The result is high-quality pictures that are easy to print, easy to share and great quality. What's more, you also get a CD-Rom of all your pictures and a web gallery for friends and family to see after the big day. All cameras are delivered ready to use and each one can hold up to 200 pictures and take short video clips. For more details visit www.lastingmoments.co.uk

You & Your Wedding has joined forces with Lastingmoments.co.uk to offer 12 lucky readers their own digital camera hire package, including up to 10 digital cameras, courier delivery and collection to any UK address, a CD-Rom of all the pictures taken and a personalised web gallery with extended web hosting of up to a year, worth a total of £259.50 each.

To enter the competition, answer the following question: How many pictures can the Kodak digital cameras hold? Then either call the hotline on 0906 951 0304* or text YYW Camera, along with your name, address and the answer to 87088. The closing date is 31 October 2006. Usual competition rules apply, see page 335. ■
